

fundraising ideas

If you need a little bit of inspiration to help kick off your fundraising, here are a few ideas to get you started.

Get the Buckets Out

One of the simpler methods of raising money is to get the fundraising buckets out and start shaking them around the office. You may end up collecting everyone's spare change but as the saying goes, every little helps!

Hold a Coffee Morning

Who doesn't love a coffee morning? Send an email around the office asking everyone to bring in their best homemade cupcakes and biscuits and set up a coffee station in the office and ask for a donation for their coffee and their cake.

Organise a Sponsored Car Wash and Valet

You can probably guarantee that almost everyone in your office will be happy to give you some money to wash and valet their car. So when the sun is shining in the sky, get your chamois and car wax out and start washing for money.

Get everyone Quizzing

Everyone loves a quiz, so why not create a paper quiz that can be easily distributed to all your colleagues? Charge £1 for each quiz sold and organise a prize for the one with the most correct answers.

Arrange a Fun Day in Work

Fundraising at work can brighten up any one's work day. It's a great way to build on work relationships and camaraderie and is very rewarding to anyone involved. There are lots of different ways you and your colleagues can raise money in your workplace, and we're here to help you every step of the way.

Set up a cake stall, run a tombola, sell some handmade gifts and organise some fun activities such as a coconut shy or an apple bobbing area. Get your work mates to donate as the day goes on and sponsor their colleagues in the activities you've organised and see how much you can raise.

Sponsored Wax

Approach one of the more hairier members of staff and see if they'd be happy to have their chest, leg, arm or back waxed all in the name of charity. Gather everyone around and charge everyone for a go at waxing that hair off!

Have a Wear your Pyjamas or Onesie Day

I'm sure if everyone had the chance they'd be more than happy to wear their pyjamas or onesie to work every day so everyone should jump at the chance of a Wear your Pyjamas or Onesie to work day!

Host a Charity Evening Fundraising Event

If you really want to raise some money and promote the Friday Media Group Foundation then please get in contact with us. Maybe you're interested in hosting a Charity Dinner, Gala Event or an Auction with all money raised being donated to charity, whatever it is, we can help you organise it and support you through the process.
